MARYVILLE, TENN., Oct. 6, 1880. MR, EDITOR: A Garfield and Arthur club was organized last night at Louis+ ville, with 76 members. E. D. Harold Esq., was elected chairman and P. P Mizer, secretary. A committee on permanent organization, constitution and by laws was appointed, consisting of J B Cummins Clabe George, Houston the house being crowded, and yet the very best order was observed throughout. After the organization, Will A. McTeer, republican candidate for representative spoke for a short time, drawing the contract the organization. tween the fivancial prosperity of the general govern ..ent under republican rule and the lepressed and dishonorable state of affairs under democratic blunders.

Capt. Sam. P. Rowan then took the stand and made a powerful speech, which in point of sound logic and close reason ing the democratic party can not equal. Their reckless declarations without truth and assumption, without grounds can but knocked the d-mocratic party in Blount county off their tripod sults and le them down to the mad. The people of Louis vitle are not to be deceived and the day of elec ion will roll up a round majority for MALARIOUS FEVERS. the cause of republicanism
